

Alternatives for the Power Plant Property

Community Workshop

Hosted by:
NEW Futures

Saturday

September 30, 2006

11 am - 3 pm

Don't miss this opportunity!

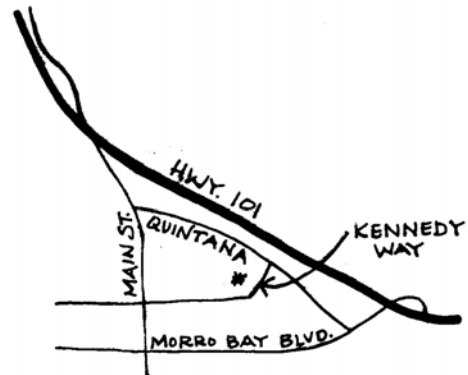

The power plant property may become available
(all or in part) to alternative uses.

We've got the facts and need to hear your ideas!
You need not invest your whole day, just the time it takes to share your thoughts.

NEW Futures needs your opinions and views to allow us to provide a realistic vision to the City Council.

Mark your calendars.
We'll see you September 30, 2006
